BOSTON'S ORIENT

The Attractive and the Artistic go hand in hand. That is why in Boston's Orient are to be found some of the most attractive things imaginable.

Hand-embroidered Kimonos and Mandarin Coats which are characteristic of Japanese Art; Old Chinese embroideries, a credit to any Museum and an attraction to one's home. As you enter this suggestion of the Orient, your attention is attracted by odd and beautiful Armenian Jewelry, a delight to the eye, and a pleasure to the wearer. Then again, you see some of the most artistic Lamps, made up of Bronzes and rare Japanese and Chinese potteries fitted up with the most delighttul Shades, made to match the Jar as well as the room where they are to be used. Oriental Rugs, and Screens which make the visitor feel as though he is actually in the Orient. In some other corner is to be found imported Novelty Silks which are so beautiful and dainty that they might almost be termed as delicious; also unusual Japanese Cotton Crepes not to be found elsewhere, and which make most attractive dresses for Summer wear.

Altogether, this shop is a little Orient in itself, and visitors are most cordially invited. It is our purpose to serve the people in a most efficient manner.
